Local Shop Owner Has Fire Loss in Waukegan

The Kiddie Korner, children's wear shop in Waukegan, owned by Mrs. Caroline Rondeau, owner of the children's shop of MarieAnne's Lake store, was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. The loss was estimated at more than $10,000.

The fire is said to have started from a furnace in the basement of the store and traveled up the wall to the second floor apartment where it broke out.

Also destroyed was Gail's women's wear shop while several thousand dollars of damage from smoke was done to Hein's department store, to the north, and even to the Globe department store across the street.

Fire departments from Great Lakes and North Chicago assisted the Waukegan department.

Mrs. Rondeau was in Waukegan Tuesday and yesterday adjusting the loss.

V.F.W. to Help Navy Veterans Apply for Illinois State Bonus

Sequoit post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has offered aid to the ex-navy men in obtaining their Illinois bonus.

Following upon the advice of Rear Adm. John Downes that navy veterans obtain immediately from the navy department an official statement of their time spent in service at home and abroad, the V. F. W. is offering to help get that information.

Adjutant E. A. Westlund said that all the information the navy needs is the full name, service number, rate and class (for example, V-6 USNR). These can be obtained from the upper left hand corner of the notice of separation.

"Send this information to me at Box 407, Antioch, Ill., with your present address and a plain stamped envelope," said Westlund. "The request will be prepared and left at Dr. L. J. Zimmerman's office for your signature and then sent to the navy department."

Speaking on the bonus over the "radio," Downes said: "The navy separation report does not specify the time spent in overseas service, as distinguished from domestic service. That information is important since the bonus is to be based upon $10 a month for service in the United States and $15 a month for service overseas."

"The veteran's chance for prompt payment of his bonus is enhanced if he has this information on hand prior to the time he gets his application blank."

Reservations for Dinner Asked. Reservation must be placed with Mrs. Einar Petersen or Mrs. A. H. Kaufmann not later than Friday for the dinner the Woman's club has planned for next Monday at Adolph's Channel Inn, officers said. Members of the club are entertaining their husbands.

Herman Rosing and Morris Pickus have a class at Ingleside composed of school teachers, bus drivers and gas station attendants. The standard course is being given there.

When the local firemen and rescue squad members take their courses an outside instructor is called in even though local men are prepared to conduct the course. That is to insure impartiality, it is said.

Milk Price In Chicago Area Is Down For January

All producers under the Chicago Federal milk marketing order will receive a uniform blended price of $4.31 per hundredweight of milk of 3.5% test f. o. b. 70-mile zone, for ALL of their January, 1947 deliveries, A. W. Colebank, market administrator announces.

This is 50c lower than the December, 1946 blended price but $1.11 higher than the blended price which producers received for January, 1946 deliveries.

Computation of the blended price under the Chicago federal milk marketing order is based upon the prices which handlers (dealers) pay for their milk supplies according to utilization in four different classifications. These class prices for December, 1946 deliveries were $4.567 per hundred-weight in Class I, which is milk used for fluid consumption, buttermilk and flavored milk drinks; $4.187 per hundred-weight in Class II, which is milk used for cream, ice cream and cottage cheese; $3.867 in Class III, which is milk used in the manufacture of evaporated and condensed milk products; and $3.418 in Class IV, which is milk used in the making of butter and cheese.

Total milk receipts of 232.8 million pounds during January, 1947 were 20.1 million pounds more than a year ago when receipts totaled 212.7 million pounds.

Class I milk sales for January, 1947 totaled 125.5 million pounds as compared with 122.7 million pounds for the month of December, and as further compared with sales of 120.3 million pounds for January, 1946.

Class II sales, which are principally cream and ice cream, for January 1947 amounted to 60.8 million pounds of milk equivalent; this compares with 63.4 million pounds for December 1946 and with 78.8 milk pounds for January 1946.

19.98% of all milk received was utilized in the surplus Classes III and IV.

Plan Campaign To Reinstate Veterans' Ins., By Aug. 1

Veterans may now reinstate their war-time (term) National Service Life Insurance without a physical examination at any time before August 1, 1947. Under previous law the time expired February 1.

To reinstate, the veteran submits a statement that he is in as good health as he was when his insurance lapsed and remits two months premiums for the amount of insurance he desires to reinstate.

World War II veterans now send premium payments to Veterans Administration, Branch Office No. 7, at 615 West Van Buren Street, Chicago 7, Illinois.

For further identification, the veteran should write his insurance certificate number on the margin of his check or money order.

Homer G. Bradney, administrator of the Illinois Veterans Commission announced the commission's 140 service officers are co-operating with the VA and the veterans' societies in their nation-wide campaign to reinstate war-time insurance.

Reinstatement blanks and rate books are available at the office of IVC Service Officer Arthur G. Adams at American Legion Home, Waukegan, Ill.

Sequoits Bow Out in First Round of Play at District B. B. Tourney

Lose to Warren 36-37; Had Beaten Them Several Times This Year

Antioch High ended its basketball season Tuesday night with a heartbreaking defeat at the hands of Warren Township High of Grunee 37 to 36 at the Wauconda district tournament.

It was a story that has been repeated so often—a team that has beaten its opponent repeatedly throughout the season only to see it rise and edge out a victory on the most important occasion.

Such an occasion is usually ascribed to overconfidence on the part of the stronger team, but more often it is a case of the weaker team playing "over its head," and this probably was Warren's situation.

The Blue Devils got the lead at the start and maintained it at the half 21 to 14, and at the three-quarter post 30 to 22. The Sequoits made a valiant effort in the final quarter and all but closed the gap. The game became rough and three players went out on fouls.

Neither team did well in free throws, Antioch making only eight of the 18 chances and Warren 7 of its 22 trials.

Lake Forest won easily from Wauconda 64 to 25 and Grant beat Grayslake 38 to 19 in the first round.

Lake Forest was expected to win the tourney, but Barrington, second strongest in the group was a big threat.

The Sequoits traveled to Fox Lake last Friday and took the Grant township boys into camp to the tune of 52 to 46. Antioch led most of the game which was a lively one.

Youth Scares Motorist On Way Home from Game

Lake county deputy sheriffs blamed basketball rivalry between Grant and Antioch township High schools for the threat against Mrs. Rudy Bach, of Antioch last Friday night.

Mrs. Bach told deputy sheriffs she was bringing some girls home from the basketball game at Fox Lake in her car when a car that had been following them and another car blocked their path at the intersection of Rtes. 59 and 173.

A boy described as about 17 years old got out of one of the cars, came back to where Mrs. Bach was, and shoved his fist through the window, broke it. He turned, ran back to his own car and the two cars sped away.

The deputies learned that a group of boys from Fox Lake had been in Antioch trying to stir up trouble with Antioch rooters and believe they were the ones involved.

Those seeking the office have until March 10 to file their petitions with the village clerk, Laurel Powles, President George B. Bartlett said.

Inability to be present at meetings a great share of the time was said to be a determining factor in the decision whether one or two of the trustees would seek the office again.

Schenk to Address Annual P. M. A. Meeting March 15

Keynote speaker for the 22nd annual meeting of Pure Milk Association will be Hassil E. Schenk, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau, according to announcement today by Wilbur J. Swayer, Association president.

The all-day meeting of PMA producers will be held Saturday, Mar. 15, in the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, and Mr. Schenk is scheduled to speak at the morning session, his subject, "The Challenge to Organized Agriculture."

From the very beginning of Farm Bureau in 1919, this 52-year old Hoosier has been an active member. All through the 1920's, undergoing the hardships common to farmers at that time, he worked as a Farm Bureau leader in his own township, convinced that organization was necessary if the problems of the farm were to be solved. In the 1930's he was elected to the presidency of the Boone County Farm Bureau, and in 1934 to vice presidency of the Indiana Farm Bureau. He has been its president since 1937, and most of that time a director of the American Farm Bureau Federation and member of its important executive committee. In 1945 he went to Venezuela as an official delegate to the Third Inter-American Conference on Agriculture.

Eight District Directors to be elected March 15.

Two new Directors are slated for election March 15 to the PMA board: Arnie W. Agnew, Milton Junction, Wisconsin, nominated for director of District 1 for the 1947-49 term; and Lester F. Hatch, Lake Geneva, nominated for District 3 (Walworth county) director.

Swayer, Grunee, Ill.; Otto H. Wennlund, Maple Park, Ill.; Charles Erickson, Mokena, Ill.; Harry H. Meyer, Crown Point, Ind.; and Earl Whitaker, Elkhart, Ind.

Boom Plus Squeeze

The United States News summed up the dilemma of the railroads when it said, "They are experiencing a boom in business, accompanied by a squeeze on profits that is throwing many into the red."

It is a simple story, and the facts and figures tell it. Traffic is exceeding all previous peacetime levels, for both freight and passengers. But the cost of handling that business has soared. Wage boosts are expected to add $680,000,000 to this year's operating expense. Payroll taxes will be $40,800,000 higher, and will total $90,000,000 more next year. The cost of all supplies is far above prewar figures. What this all adds up to is that it costs about 50 per cent more to run the railroads than in 1939.

By comparison, rates are almost unchanged. In 1939, a dollar moved one ton of freight 103 miles. Today that same dollar moves that same ton of freight 100 miles, which means that freight service costs only three per cent more than it did seven long years ago. And the cost of passenger service is only around seven per cent higher.

That is why the railroads have petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for moderate rate increases which would represent the minimum necessary to keep them going and to improve their facilities. In the words of the New York Times, "The present situation is one that . . . can be corrected only by the ICC, which is charged by Congress with the duty of establishing rates that will provide a sound transportation system. An early decision by that body is needed to remove some of the uncertainties of future railroad operations and give management the confidence it needs for carrying out essential expansion and improvement programs."

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Well folks the topic today is, "Should we make the Govt. better versus just bigger and showier like we been doing for a dog's age." If folks were getting happier and more contented under Big Govt., I would say, okay. But as it is, with more murders, more taxes, more divorces, more delinquency, less tranquillity, fewer Kansas City steaks—it is time to look under the covers. And that item of K. C. steaks, I hark back to when the Santa Fe served a 6-bit dinner at its scrumptious eating houses. The hotel manager himself, with a platter of sizzling steaks on the crook of his elbow, asked you which one—a big one or a smaller one.

Govt. is now so big that it is stumbling over its own feet. Take housing, One Top Kick says rents should come down 10 per cent. Uncle Harry says, tut-tut, 'taint so. And right here at Hickory there are 2 weather outfits. One says, tonight it will rain and be warmer. The other gent says for the fruit and vegetable folks to get their heaters going—it will frost. And next day we find neither rain nor frost—and both gents are in the weather dog-house.

And in your own affairs, there is some Govt. guy watching you or telling you what is best to do or vice versa, and you know for sure that he is just guessing—or reading out of some book. My proposal is, cut 50% off all budgets—see what happens then to the Govt. and us. Steaks might even get bigger. And the weather does as it pleases anyway.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

An American Story

We tend to forget the fact that "big business" was "little business" a few years ago. The true American story is the chronicle of people succeeding, prospering and developing through their own efforts.

The history of one of the country's principal chain grocery systems, the Safeway Company, is a case in point. Its importance lies in the fact that the history of the most successful American enterprise is essentially the same.

In 1915, a man opened a hole-in-the-wall grocery store in the West. Little by little, as his resources permitted, he started additional stores. In 1926, he merged with another system operating in California. In 1931, still another merger, this time with a Pacific Northwest chain, took place. And the business, in response to public demand for its service, continued to grow.

There is no mystery to the secret of this success. The chain simply offered the public things it wanted—the way it wanted them. It was a pioneer in the self-service idea, which reduced costs and gave the customer a chance to browse about in making his purchases. It adopted more attractive and sanitary display and handling methods. It installed such conveniences as free parking space adjacent to stores. And, vitally important, it held prices down. In 1945, for example, after paying farmers and other suppliers, salaries, taxes, etc., its net profit was actually less than one penny of each sales dollar!

Other retail systems have had a similar record. Somewhere, today, there is a small-store operator who will be the big-store operator of tomorrow—if inequitable taxes and governmental interference don't stand in his way. If there is one word which can be used to describe the American system, that word is "opportunity." We must never forget it.

Mrs. Lloyd Stoen, Mrs. Roy Swartz, Mrs. Herman Frank, Mrs. Alex Schubert and Mrs. Flavia Elbert accompanied them.

The Union Free High school basketball team defeated Waterford 47-26. This game completed the Conference schedule. The team won all games and finished in first place. Wednesday they are entered in the Regional tournament at Elkhorn and are to play Beloit.

African Paradise

Tanganyika, stretching from the Indian ocean deep into east-central Africa, is a third larger than Texas and has a population of between five and six million people. Its mountains tower nearly 20,000 feet, and the "bottom drops out" to form part of Africa's great Rift valley, of ancient volcanic creation. Resources include tin, diamonds, gold and silver, as well as fertile cotton and coffee lands, and forests of mahogany and ebony. Elephants, giraffes, buffaloes, lions, ostriches, and antelopes have made this region a happy hunting ground for big-game sportsmen.

Rewards for 4-H Work are many and varied. Picnics, camps, trips and outings are only a few. Each year state winners, like the group above, are chosen to attend the annual National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago where they vie with winners from other states for National Honors.

Recreation and Responsibility come with the social activities and business meetings which are held at regular intervals by the 4-H Clubs and their nearly 1,700,000 members. Here the happy Sandy Ford Jr. display a few of their domestic projects at the LaSalle County Home Economics Show.

JOINING THE RANKS of the 35,000 boys and girls who are members of Illinois 4-H Clubs is a pleasure and a privilege for young and old alike. Membership in this world-wide rural organization provides both parents and children with many advantages. It provides an opportunity to participate in clubwork that teaches skills and knowledge of permanent value. It teaches community leadership, gives them experience in democratic living, and fills the need for wholesome recreational and social activities.

Another National 4-H Club Enrollment Week is here. Parents are urged to encourage their children and other children to join the local 4-H Club. If there is no local club, a group of five or more is all that's needed to start one. Perhaps you can serve as its leader or help secure 4-H for your community. Don't miss this chance to voluntarily act as friend and counselor to Young America.

Livestock Projects are favorites with thousands of 4-H'ers like Phil Firkin, and his assistant club leader, John Olson. Competition at 4-H Club Fairs provides fun and frolic . . . brings about livestock improvement . . . helps establish business contacts that will be of help in the future.

Head, Heart, Hands, and Health team up to make an unbeatable combination wherever 4-H'ers like the Managins Hustlers meet. Rural boys and girls between ages of 10 and 20, in a group of 5 or more, perform specific farm and home duties under the supervision of a local 4-H Club adult leader.

Myles VanDuzer Graduates From Air Mechanical School

Pfc. Myles W. VanDuzer, son of Mr. M. B. VanDuzer, Rt. 1 Antioch Ill., this week was graduated from one of the world's greatest educational programs—one of the Air Training Command's airplane mechanics training courses at Keesler Field.

The training he received in the mechanics school covered basic airplane and engine mechanic operations. The technical course extended over a period of approximately 16 weeks included instruction in aircraft electrical systems, engine operation, fuel and oil systems, propellers, structures, instruments and basic inspection. This qualified him for additional specialized training in the maintenance of heavy bombers, cargo planes, jet and rotor aircraft.

Uncle Sam Says

Sixty-three years ago this month, Americans discovered a new way of joshing a neighbor who invested his money unwisely: "Go buy yourself Brooklyn Bridge." Brooklyn Bridge had just been opened. Some people actually turned over their savings to confidence men who sold them the great New York span. I could say to you today: "Go buy yourself a bridge," and I would be giving you sound advice. The bridge I have in mind consists of United States Savings Bonds... a bridge between the present and your future.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our beloved husband and father who passed away Feb. 27, 1946.

We bow our heads in silent prayer.

For one, who's gone away. Sometimes it's more than we can bear.

To think, a year, today. Our eyes are dimmed with a silent tear.

And a precious memory of one so dear.

Blind Man is Convicted of

First Degree Manslaughter

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA.—Orbie T. Guthrie, 42-year-old blind furniture merchant, was convicted of first degree manslaughter in the shooting of Mrs. Elizabeth Hinds, his former mother-in-law.

Prosecution officials said they were unable to find any record of a blind man having been tried for murder in the state. The case was complicated further by the fact that a blind person—Guthrie's former wife—was the only witness to the shooting.

The jury returned its verdict without recommendation, leaving to District Judge Lucius Babcock the severity of Guthrie's sentence, which may vary from a minimum penalty of four years to a maximum of life in prison.

Milking Effort

On the basis of actual farmer count, 340 to 350 squeezes are required in hand milking to produce one gallon of milk, according to extension dairy specialists.

Border Ancient Decoration
The border is one of the earliest elements found in decorative arts. In primitive drawings it was a simple line which marked the edge of the decorative area. It becomes ornate, as seen in Egyptian and Greek art. In tapestries, rugs and textiles it became a part of the design.

Hardwood Flooring

Harder species of wood floors will carry concentrated loads of almost 5,000 pounds per square inch without being marred by crushed or deformed fibers. Oak is the most widely used hardwood flooring because it combines strength with beauty and durability.

Plucking Eyebrows

Before plucking your eyebrows, wash the brow with warm soap water. This will remove all outside matter from the pores and guard against infection. After plucking the stray hairs, touch a few drops of antiseptic to the brows with your finger tips.

Patent Leather Shoes

Patent leather shoes should not be worn in very cold weather because it makes them brittle.

First Cooking Stoves
The first cooking stoves were marketed in the United States in the 1830s. They were wood burning stoves with built-in ovens and a tank at the end for heating water.

FACT AND SCRIPTURE

The greatest friend to man is Jesus, often depicted as the good shepherd.

"He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young". Isa. 40:11

"I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep." John 10:11

And as the Lenten days begin we are mindful of this fact—He did go through with all the Father's plan, though He knew full well that before the plan could be fulfilled, He must be the Sacrificial Lamb. He was to give His life a ransom for many.

Scientists Find New Method of Radio Reception

Research 'Accident' Shows Broadcast Heard Clearly Without Tubes.

BALTIMORE. — Accidental discovery of what it termed an entirely new method of radio reception, in which broadcast waves are picked up through a tiny strip of rigid metal without use of tubes, electric current, antenna or condensers, was announced by Johns Hopkins university.

The university said programs had been heard clearly through a piece of columbium nitride smaller than a common pin and made superconductive by lowering its temperature to about 435 degrees below zero (fahrenheit).

Dr. Donald H. Andrews, professor of chemistry at Johns Hopkins and co-discoverer of the new broadcast reception method, said there was no way of telling just what the strip's commercial possibilities were. He said extensive research still was being carried on.

Costs Tenth of Cent.

He said the tiny strip of columbium needed cost less than one-tenth of a cent, that it was attached to about a penny's worth of copper, and that it presented a new and unusual refrigeration problem, but one he hoped would not prove serious. Dr. Andrews said reception from the tiny strip of metal "is as clear as most ordinary radios" and when it was hooked up to the regulation public address system needed to amplify, "it overloaded the speaker."

Unofficial sources close to the university and the experiment, said the discovery might open the way to revolutionizing of trans-ocean and other long distance radio sending and receiving because of the treated metal's great potentialities for sensitivity to wave impulses.

The discovery came about, the university said, in a special announcement, during a course of experiments being carried out by Dr. Andrews and Dr. Chester Clark of the university staff.

They were carrying on research upon the infra red ray bolometer, a device developed at Johns Hopkins during the war for "seeing" objects in the dark, using a strip of superconductive metal.

Picks Up Program.

At one point in the experiments Dr. Andrews noted a battery was running low, so he turned off the heating coil which governs the extremely sensitive point at which the columbium nitride strip in the bolometer is made sensitive to infra red rays.

The temperature of the bolometer fell to approximately 435 degrees below zero because of liquid hydrogen encasing it.

A loudspeaker had been connected to the circuit because it is often useful to observe effects by audible rather than visual means, the university explained.

The bolometer is a copper mounting about an inch in diameter, containing a threadlike ribbon of columbium nitride, from which extend two wire leads. This is the detecting device which replaces the entire radio frequency side of the present day receiving set, the university explained.

With the two scientists at the time was Miss Peggy McEwan, laboratory technician. All three were astounded, the university said, when the loudspeaker began to issue the program being broadcast by a local station (WBAL).

Further experiments showed that programs from other wave lengths from that of WBAL could be picked up easily.

Atomic Aircraft Engine Is Being Developed by Army

WASHINGTON. — Army air force scientists have made such progress in an atomic aircraft engine that a development contract has been awarded a large airplane company.

The corporation is carrying on experimental work but there has been no indication when the engine will reach the test stage. It will resemble the rocket-type power plant. The scientists admit that their toughest problem is providing a shield to protect the crew from the deadly atomic rays.

They are trying to overcome this by enclosing the engine in lead. This would be unnecessary if the engine were used in pilotless aircraft or guided missiles.

Atomic warheads for guided missiles also are on the experimental line as part of the AAF's $300,000,000 research and development program for 1946-47. The AAF plans to ask for $347,507,000 for research during 1947-48.

Train Strikes Sheep and

Folks Have Meat at Last

MANCY, FRANCE. — There was mutton on the menu for meat famished Frenchmen here.

Ninety-five sheep escaped from a pasture, wandered down to a railroad right-of-way, and there bedded down for the night. Came a freight train.

Came the dawn — and neighborhood butchers swarmed over the scene cutting up the carcasses of 95 sheep for sale.

Boy Gets Life Sentence

For Murder of Widow

KANSAS CITY. — Nineteen-year-old Earnest Elmer Hasty was sentenced to life in prison for the slaying of a 59-year-old widow after telling the judge that "words can't express my feeling for having perpetrated such a sadistic crime."

Mrs. Maude Nance was choked to death in her apartment.

German 'Bluebeard'

Found Killer of 53

Story Is Kept Hushed Up by the Nazis; Dies in Prison.

BERLIN. — The Nazi government for unexplained reasons hushed up the story of a German "bluebeard" who confessed 53 sex killings and died in a Vienna prison in 1944, perhaps from the effects of the Nazis' medical experiments, secret police files disclosed.

The voluminous story was uncovered by a German newspaper man who obtained access to the six by four and a half foot bookshelf in criminal police headquarters which was required to hold the secret file of Bruno Luedtke, who said he had killed the 53 persons with knife, club and noose in a 20-year sex-mad career.

Luedtke, a dark beetle-browed laborer, acknowledged crimes exceeding even those of the Frenchman, Dr. Peilot, who was sentenced to death for 40 wartime slayings which the Nazis highly publicized.

Born April 3, 1901, at suburban Koepenick, Luedtke said he committed his first four murders at the age of 18 and finally was arrested as a suspect in the January 23, 1943, murder and rape of a modest Berlin widow.

Confronted by a list of similar unsolved crimes, he blandly confessed, "Yes, I not only committed this murder but many of them — about 50. Practically all were women. Only when forced to do so did I also kill their husbands."

He gave police his complete "murder calendar" and accurately re-enacted the crimes at the scenes. His confessions showed he had killed at least one person every year except 1927. All but four were women. Some of his victims he attacked in the woods or fields, but usually he had trapped them in their homes after carefully plotting the crime, and if he encountered the husband he killed him too.

On December 10, 1943, he was removed to Vienna because it was feared he might escape during the increasingly violent Allied bombings.

The police records showed that he was sterilized at Vienna and made the subject of further unstated medical experiments which may have caused his death.

The record only said he died there in April, 1944.

Conditions for Increased

Farm Imports Are Favorable

WASHINGTON. — A U. S. Chamber of Commerce report said that conditions for increased imports, particularly in competitive farm products, are more favorable than at any time in a century.

Prepared by the chamber's agriculture committee, the statement said it is possible that such products as butter may be imported from Europe before the shortage there is alleviated, in order to provide European purchasing power for other commodities.

The committee cited a report, whose source it did not give, that Holland exporters recently arranged for a shipment of potatoes to Brazil when potatoes were awaiting shipment to Europe from this country. It also noted that Scotch whisky and Holland beer, "both made from grains, are being sent to the United States."

The government's supported prices for farm products "may attract imports," the committee added.

Tired of Coddling Errant

Husband, Wife Gets Divorce

CUMBERLAND, MD. — Mrs. Goldie Boggs, 32, has the divorce she sought, convinced that she had made a mistake in chopping wood and carrying ashes while her husband slept through the day.

She told the Allegheny county circuit court that she had done the chores habitually so that her husband could look fresh and at his best and "get ahead," but that she learned from a detective she had hired that 32-year-old Boggs, far from working every night, often "stepped out."

Mrs. Boggs was awarded $80 a month maintenance for herself and a child.

Unable to Find Another Home

Chicago Widow Kills Herself

CHICAGO. — Inability to find another home after a six-month search was blamed for the suicide of Mrs. Mary Neva, 64, a Chicago widow.

Police said Mrs. Neva drank poison a few hours after she received a final eviction notice. She died in St. Mary's hospital an hour after she was found unconscious in the basement of the flat she had occupied for many years with her ailing daughter, Miss Teresa Neva, 40.

Uncle Sam Says

Take a look at Miss U. S. Savings Bond, friend. You don't have to be a seventh son of a seventh son to see your future. If travel is your desire some day, or you hope to see your boy or girl in college, or you dream of owning a farm, this Bond can help to make these dreams come true. Bonds accumulate faster than you imagine when you save regularly through the payroll savings plan where you work. Every $18.75 you put away in United States Savings Bonds grows to $25 in ten years.

Best Time for Mulches

Most mulches should be applied after the ground has frozen a little. If a mulch is put on earlier, rodents may make their nests in it. Then they are likely to feed upon the crowns or stems of the plants.

Milk Dishes

To achieve a smooth consistency in most dishes made with milk, adding the ingredients in the right order is important. The wrong order of adding can cause separation or curdling, cookery experts advise.

Delicious Filling

A delicious filling which may be used in stuffing tomatoes or making sandwiches is made as follows: mix cream cheese with enough mayonnaise to give a soft consistency, add finely chopped nuts (pecans are best) and onion juice.

Corn Yield Increases

In only five of the past 50 years has the harvested acreage of corn been smaller than in 1945. The harvested acreage was lower in 1898, 1939, 1940, 1941 and 1945. A record yield averaging 37.1 bushels to the acre on a relatively small acreage produced the nation's largest corn crop.

Bossism in Pullet House

Pullets may lose weight for lack of feed or improper proportions of grain and mash or just bossism. Even when pullets are well graded and of a uniform state of development when housed the boss hen keeps the more timid birds from eating at will. This is the reason it is difficult to provide enough feed troughs and waterers when houses are crowded or when birds of varying ages are mixed together.

St. Pat's Party Candles

Begorrah, and these easy-to-make Shamrock Candles (shown above) will add color and gaiety to your St. Patrick's Day party. Turn tin cans upside down. Puncture a hole in the center base, large enough to hold a green taper firmly. Decorate the outside of cans with shamrock seals. For refreshment, small glasses of Shamrock Punch and thin assorted sandwiches are appropriate. Punch may be prepared in a large water pitcher if you don't have a punch bowl, and the glowing ruby color of the wine offers pleasing contrast with the green of your decorations.

SHAMROCK PUNCH
2 bottles Roma California Claret
1 bottle sparkling water
1 cup sugar
Juice and peel of 2 lemons
Combine the Roma Claret, sparkling water, sugar, and lemon juice and peel in a large bowl or water pitcher. Chill thoroughly. remove lemon peel and serve.

Beautiful Neck

When you pile your curls on top of your head, be sure that neck and ears are truly clean. Using a sudsy brush on your neck is not only a sure way to remove that collar grime but a beautifier, too, for the bristles stimulate the circulation and help prevent a crepey throat.

Strength of Joist

Good flooring, whether of oak or other hardwood, must have sturdy joists as foundation. Other factors being equal, the strength of a floor joist varies according to the square of the depth. Stiffness, or resistance to sag, varies according to the cube of the depth. Thus a joist 10 inches deep will be about 1 1/2 times as strong and nearly twice as stiff as a joist 8 inches deep.

Fruit Stains

Try sponging with cold water first and gentle rubbing on cranberry or other cooked fruit stains. Boiling water poured on the stain also may be effective. If the stain does not come out entirely, try a drop of lemon juice followed by a thorough rinsing in cool water.

Grading Eggs

Egg grades are determined by the size, internal quality, and external appearance. The size grades commonly on the local retail market are "extra large," "large," "medium" and "small." The quality grades usually on the local retail market are designated AA as top quality, with A, B and C as qualities of less desirable grade, but all of which are wholesome and nutritious.

Vaccine Checks Flu Epidemic

War-time development of the effective influenza vaccine averted the possibility of a major influenza epidemic. The epidemic of 1918 struck five hundred million people, of whom about fifteen million died. There were half a million fatalities in the United States alone. The destruction of human life by influenza within a four-month period exceeded American losses during the four years of World War II.

Forest Cull

The measured cull from the first clear cutting on the Upper Peninsula experimental forest at Dukes, Mich., was 33 per cent of the gross volume. This figure has run to as high as 45 or 50 per cent in very defective old-growth stands in which sugar maple has predominated. Cull varies considerably over relatively short distances in the forest.

Petroleum Distillates

Distillation products of petroleum form the base for contact sprays applied to dairies and other food processing plants, warehouses, public buildings and residences, for controlling flies, cockroaches, bedbugs and other pests. Large quantities of petroleum products are also applied to plant life in the form of emulsions for the control of such pests as scale insects. Petroleum sulfonates are used as emulsifying and wetting agents.

Insurance Mortgages

Aggregate mortgage investments of life insurance companies at the end of 1945 amounted to $6,635,982,000. This was a decrease of $38,568,000 in the year, although new mortgages financed by the life insurance companies during 1945 totaled over $950,000,000. Of the mortgages owned at the end of 1945, $779,000,000 were farm mortgages, $1,394,000,000 were FHA home mortgages and $4,463,000,000 were other city mortgages, including both housing and business properties.

Myth of Large, Whiskered Russ Now DebunkedFind Americans as Race Are Much Larger; Popular Idea All Wrong.

MOSCOW. — The once popular conception of the Russian as a huge man with a long black beard and high boots has been debunked numerous times, but the image still exists in the minds of many Americans.

The Russians are not a big people. They always comment on the size of Americans. As a race, Americans are much larger.

Russian men like to wear boots and the Russian cap, of cloth or fur. They do not like hats.

In summertime, thousands of Russians wear little gay-colored skull caps, but the plain blue serge cap always is in style. In winter this often is changed to a caracul cap.

Women's hats here, like everywhere else, are unpredictable. They range from somber plain blacks to feathery explosions of color. In winter, many Russians, particularly women from the country, wear shawls over their heads and in summer a handkerchief. But there is brisk trade in modern headgear.

Like Gay Ties.

One distinguishing feature of men's suits is the Russian preference for short coats. The Russians also like gay ties and a large loose knot. Stripes are in vogue, and a rainbow model gets many admiring glances.

Because of the large amount of rain and snow, rubbers and galoshes are seen on millions of feet. The ancient valenki, or felt boot, still is popular, even in the cities, especially in cold weather.

Taking into exception that there wasn't much for the consumer during the war, Russian girls and women dress about like American and English women.

High heels generally are preferred. Lipstick is used, but not much cheek rouge. Complexions here usually are real and blooming.

Women operate the men's barber shops and the beauty shops, which are plentiful and always busy.

For entertainment, the city Russian has the theater and a very good one at that. He has movies, concerts of every kind, public lectures, clubs, dances, restaurants and a lot of sport.

The theater is extremely popular and there are practically no empty seats. The same goes for the movies.

There are no night clubs as such, but many restaurants have floor entertainment and dance orchestras. These restaurants are tremendously popular.

Most Popular Drink.

There are bars and pubs, too. One spacious and resplendent one on one of Moscow's main streets is called "Koktail Zal." Wine is the most popular drink, with vodka, the national liquor, perhaps next and then beer.

Most of all, the Russian likes to drink tea. They drink it by the gallons. Talk and tea has been a national pastime for generations.

Thousands upon thousands of Russians go to church regularly on Saturday night and Sunday morning. Churches are always packed.

The Russians are great readers. Newspapers and magazines play an important role in their daily life. All papers could print thousands of more copies.

Much of the Russian housewife's day is spent in shopping. She must go to the ration store, the open market store or the peasant market, all some distance from one another. This takes time — and money. The Russian man and boy works. When they come home they expect a good meal.

Russians like to talk and argue and tell stories. They generally are excellent listeners. They are very sociable and they like to visit one another.

Explosions Rout Tenants Of Building Twice in Week

BALTIMORE. — It was old stuff for the 25 tenants of 13 apartments in a midtown building when they donned dressing gowns and trooped calmly to the street at 2:10 a. m. The new oil furnace had blown up again.

Dr. Joseph McClees was awakened by fumes just before the explosion as he had been at 2:30 a. m. five days before. He threw the electrical switches again, thereby preventing a fire. The residents chatted impatiently as firemen cleared the building of dense smoke, then went back to bed in their cold apartments.

Grippe Gets Membership In U. S. Marine Corps

NEW YORK. — An honorary membership in the U. S. marine corps has been extended to 18-year-old Harold Bernhardt, whose left leg was shattered in an auto accident just a month before he was to enter service. Brig. Gen. William E. Riley, recruiting director of the corps, flew from Washington to present the membership to Bernhardt, confined to his bed in Bellevue hospital.

A gilt consigned by George Brumbach, of Lake Villa, was next, selling for $117.50. R. B. Griffin and Son, of Zion, sold a gilt for $115.00.
